'Delicate Decisions' at Cohen Gallery

"Delicate Decisions" is a two-person show featuring the functional ceramics of recent College of Ceramics graduates Luc Hammond-Thomas and Jess Detweiler.

In her work, Detweiler employs a playful attraction to form, volume, color, and elegance. The still-life, genre style display evokes fantasies about future domestic use.

Hammond-Thomas' work acts on the fundamental relationship between pottery and furniture, and how this pairing further expands each material's function. The work embraces the latent duality of functional objects as sculpture.

And the winner is....The Gail Walker Scholarship Book Fund!

Due to the great success and overwhelming support of the cash raffle the Support Staff Council raised $375! More exciting news is that a total of $125 in prize money was donated BACK! Bringing the total donated to the Walker Book Fund to $500!

At the wishes of some of our winners, their names will remain anonymous.

The Walker Book Fund is a fund that assists students who truly cannot afford their text books. Thanks to all that participated in helping make this success!
