

Alfred University women's lacrosse team loses season opener

3/12/02

ST. PETERSBURG, FL The Alfred University women's lacrosse team dropped the first of three games on its spring trip to Florida, losing to Connecticut College 14-6 on Tuesday. Senior attack Sheilah Higgins (East Northport/Northport) scored three goals and assisted on another to pace AU (0-1, 0-0 Empire 8). Senior midfielder Lindsay deCsipkes (Unionville, PA/Unionville) and sophomore attack Chris Sanford (Bowdoinham, ME/Mt. Ararat) each had a goal and an assist. Rounding out Alfred's scoring was freshman midfielder Mandi King (Hilliard, OH/Hilliard Davidson) with one goal and junior midfielder Katie Sedgwick (Manlius/Fayetteville-Manlius) with an assist. Sophomore Jessica Dunster (Auburn/Auburn) started in goal for the Lady Saxons and made 11 saves while allowing nine goals. Junior Anora Burwell (Rochester/School of Arts) played the final 20 minutes and made four saves while allowing five goals. Alfred is in action next on Wednesday, March 13, when the Lady Saxons take on Haverford College at 11 a.m. AU will wrap up its spring trip Friday, March 15, at 4 p.m. against Colorado College before returning to Alfred to prepare for the season home opener against Fredonia, March 20 at 4 p.m.