

AU men's basketball team outlasts D'Youville at Rochester tournament

11/17/01

ROCHESTER After losing in the first round of Chuck Resler Invitational Tournament yesterday, the Alfred University men's basketball team came back to defeat D'Youville 79-70 in the consolation game at the University of Rochester. The Saxons (1-1, 0-0 Empire Eight) led 35-30 at halftime and played a solid second half to seal the victory. Senior forward E.J. Docteur (Seneca Falls/Mynderse) led the team with 23 points and eight rebounds and was named an all-tournament selection. Senior guard Devon Downing (Canton, OH/Glen Oak) chipped in with 18 points and five rebounds, while forward Brock Stortini (Poughkeepsie/Arlington) added 13 points and seven rebounds. D'Youville was led by forwards Ian Morris and James Hunt, who had 15 and 14 points respectively. Forward Kenneth Taylor had a team-high eight rebounds. The Saxons will be in action on Tuesday, Nov. 20 when they travel to Hilbert for a 7:30 p.m. contest.--30--