

Men's basketball defeats Allegheny on the road.

11/30/05

MEADVILLE, PA- The Alfred University men's basketball team won on the road at Allegheny College, 86-76, Wednesday evening. After a tight first half in which the Saxons found themselves down 34-31, Alfred (2-2, 0-0 Empire 8) would rally in the second half, shooting 67 percent from the field after intermission to secure their second win of the season. Junior guard Rob McCarter (Wooster, OH/Wooster) led five Saxons in double figures with a game-high 21 points. Senior forward Ryan Hallett (Caledonia, NY/Caledonia-Mumford) and senior guard Chris Lemasters (Mansfield, PA/Mansfield) scored 18 and 14 points, respectively. Senior forward Todd Dersham (Campbell, NY/Campbell-Savona) netted 11 for the Saxons. Junior forward Ryan Clemenson (Ovid, NY/South Seneca) led the Saxons in rebounds with eight. Junior center Dillon Stein (North Huntingdon, PA/Norwin) returned to the lineup for the Saxons after missing the first three games recovering from a knee injury. Stein saw limited action, only playing 19 minutes, but finished with 11 points, five rebounds and three blocked shots. Casey McCloskey led Allegheny with 20 points and five assists. Matt Majzlik had a team-high seven boards to go with 12 points for the host team, while Larry Sharp and Brian Schultz scored 11 points each. The Saxons will be in action next on Saturday, Dec. 3, at 7 p.m. at home against Cortland.
