

Alumnus's work appears in Toxicity

5/23/13

Work by Greg Leshe &85, assignment photographer/interdisciplinary artist, is included in "Toxicity," opening at the Williamsburg Art & Historical Center (WAH), 135 Broadway (corner of Bedford Avenue), Brooklyn, Saturday, May 25. The opening reception runs from 6-8 p.m., in the Main Gallery.

"Toxicity" presents various media by seven artists who deal with toxicity, in physical as well as societal manifestations, as a contemporary condition. The exhibit runs through Sunday, June 23. The WAH is open Friday, Saturday, Sunday, and Monday from 1-5 p.m.