New York State Paid Family Leave Changes for 2019

The PFL benefit rate will increase from 50% to 55% of an employee's average weekly wage, up to the weekly maximum of $746.41, for a maximum of 10 weeks (subject to the 52-week lookback). The weekly maximum benefit rate is based on 55% of the state's average weekly wage of $1,357.11 for 2019.

The contribution rate for employees will also increase in 2019 from .00126% to .00153% of gross wages. The maximum annual employee PFL contribution for 2019 will be $107.97, up from $85.56 in 2018.

For example, in 2019, an employee who makes $1,000 a week would receive a benefit of $550 a week (55% of $1,000). Another employee who makes $2,000 a week would receive a benefit of $746.41, because this employee is capped at one-half of New York State's Average Weekly Wage (NYS AWW) of $1,357.11.

Got Saxon Spirit?! Apply to be an Admissions Student Ambassador!

To apply:

Complete the attached application and submit it, along with the required materials to the Office of Admissions (located in Alumni Hall) or via e-mail to bentley@alfred.edu no later than Monday October 15, 2018.

Alison Nguyen (b. 1986) graduated from Brown University with a B.A. in Literary Arts. Selected screenings and exhibitions include: The Whitney Museum (in collaboration with expanded cinema group, Optipus), Palace Film Festival, The Manhattan Independent Film Festival, Satellite Miami, and BOSI Contemporary. Artist In Residence Johanna Herr

Dates: October 22- 26, 2018

Location: Alfred University

Sponsored by: NYSCA and The Institute for Electronic Arts

Johanna Herr's work explores direct and indirect manifestations of state-sanctioned violence. Specifically, she am interested in the spectacular quality of contemporary screen-mediated, media-enriched, consumerism-as-nationalism. I am fascinated by the inherent cannibalism of the consumer eye, destroying other lives to constitute its own, when capitalism acts as a sublime life-force. When certain bodies become non-human and video game controllers cause real casualties. When fireworks look like missile strikes, tear gas and police lights feel like dance club ambiance, and you can buy a war rug on sears.com. While these phenomenona are by no means unique to America, my recent body of work examines these issues through the lens of the US, a country where she is , both by birth and culture, inextricably entrenched.

Let's Talk about Kavanaugh

Join our panel of faculty and students in discussing what we can learn from the congressional hearings regarding Brett Kavanaugh's nomination to be a justice on the Supreme Court and Christine Blasey Ford's allegations of sexual assault. What do these hearings tell us about power, privilege, gender, leadership, attitudes toward sexual misconduct, and assumptions that frame the whole debate? How will these hearings affect the upcoming elections and future court nominations?

CLOSING SOON! AnOther One Open Call

Open Call for the ONLY Turner show dedicated to Students of Color in recent Alfred University history is ending soon (10/10). It's now or never to be a part of this show, which will give students the ability to showcase and discuss their experiences at Alfred being non-White.

Maybe you're the only non-White person in a class, or you're expected to speak on behalf of an entire race or culture on penalty of creating more prejudice. Maybe you're followed more at the Wal-Mart, or the people around you keep saying xenophobic things. Perhaps people assume your citizen status or intelligence level because of your skin color or last name. Maybe you're in the Southern Tier, and the community around you regularly votes for people who dedicate their political lives to perpetuate hate towards your community. This is the ONLY show that is dedicated to support you if you want to call these types of things to attention.

We fought hard to have a show like this in Turner, and it will be a giant waste to not have YOUR voice or the voice of students of color you may know.

AnOther One can also feature work that critically analyzes sociological inconsistencies common in a racialized society, which may or may not be specific to being a student or being in Alfred. Open to all years and departments.

This show is accepting applications via email to another.show.2018@gmail.com. Deadline is October 10th. Please include the following in your email:

*"Submission" as the subject line

- *Photos of your work as attachments
- *A description of how your work (media, dimensions, title, required hardware if applicable) and how it fits the show's objectives
- *If you're comfortable displaying an artist statement with your work
- *If you're open to attend our Artists' Discussion Q&A
- *Any other concerns, needs, or questions
