

Wells defeats Alfred 2-1 in women's soccer

10/03/07

AURORA, NY The Alfred University women's soccer team fell 2-1, Tuesday afternoon at Wells College. After a scoreless first half, Alfred (1-10-1, 0-3 Empire 8) got on board with freshman Emily Graham's (Wellsville, NY/Wellsville) second goal of the season 20 minutes into the second half assisted by sophomore Alyssa Raykovitz (Andover, NY/Andover). Despite outshooting the Express 26-20, the Lady Saxons could not maintain their lead as Wells scored two goals in the period. Wells (2-8) received goals from Amanda Heterbring and Michaela Wilson, who assisted Heterbring's goal. Sophomore goalkeeper Meredith Ragan (Dallas, TX/Science Engineering Magnet) went the distance in goal for AU making eight saves. On the other side of the field, Well's Claire Peterson played 90 minutes and made 12 saves. Alfred is in action next on Saturday, Oct. 6 at conference opponent Elmira College at 1 p.m.