Washington Semester Program for Spring 2011

Dr. Heineman of the Social Sciences Division is now taking applications for the Washington Semester Program for Spring 2011.

The Washington Semester Program is sponsored by American University and enables students to spend a semester in Washington, D.C., studying public policy in a variety of areas. Students who have participated in the program have used their experience and contacts to obtain excellent positions in Washington and elsewhere.

In addition to taking coursework, students will meet with government officials and political leaders in seminar sessions and will participate in an internship of their choosing.

In addition to its major focus on American national government, the program also has a number of options utilizing non-governmental resources in the Washington area, including working with interest groups and art and cultural institutions. Some of these are: journalism, law enforcement, public law, economics, international business, international organizations, and women and politics.

Course credits and grades are fully transferable to the student's transcript. Students can obtain additional information on the program at www.washingtonsemester.co... Juniors or seniors are eligible to participate and scholarships are available.

Over the past year, Steve Patterson and Kristin Edward Brown attended the program. Those interested should contact Dr. Heineman in room 209 of the Olin Building. Applications should be completed by Friday, Oct. 29, 2010.

Engineering and Materials Science Day

The Annual Engineering and Materials Science Day is slated for Thursday, Oct. 28, 2010. High Schools in our region are invited to bring a maximum of 10 junior and/or senior students to Alfred University to participate in a scholarship opportunity.

Space is limited and applications to participate must be received no later than Thursday, Oct. 21.

The focus of the day is the Inamori School of Engineering Scholarship exam. Scholarships will be awarded based on the exam results. First, Second, and Third place students will each receive a 4-year scholarship that can be applied toward tuition in any of our engineering programs at AU (provided certain academic standards are maintained).

The day also includes tours of the laboratory facilities in the Inamori School of Engineering and lunch on campus.

For more information or an electronic registration form your school should contact: Marlene Wightman, Director of Continuing Education/Outreach, Phone: 607.871.2425, wightman@alfred.edu.

Be a Part of the AU Alma Mater Video!

"Nestled away 'mid the Empire State hills..."

Imagine that in bluegrass style, or played on chromatic harmonica, or sung by an a cappella duet, or even shredded on heavy metal guitar.

The Alfred University Communications Office would like to produce a compilation video with various clips of people playing the AU Alma Mater. We will post it on YouTube as well as in the online Alfred magazine in early December.

What gave us the idea was a homemade video that was sent to us by Steve Levine of '58, in which he's playing the alma mater on clawhammer-style banjo.

We know that there are lots of other very talented alumni, faculty, and current students, and we want your video submissions! The more creative and entertaining your ideas are, the better.

All we ask is that the alma mater be recognizable during parts of the performance, and that the audio is not so loud that it overloads the microphone on your video camera. The camera can be stationary (on a tripod), or you can do a handheld approach provided it isn't too shaky. As for cameras, you can use pretty much anything from a Flip Video to a high quality HD camera. Formats we can work with are: AVI, MOV, and WMV. Submissions can be mailed on a CD (or uploaded via YouSendIt or similar online upload/download service)

Your submission can be in any key. The deadline for submissions is Friday, Nov. 12, 2010. Feel free to contact Rick McLay '89 in the Alfred University Communications Office (607.871.2103) if you have any questions or suggestions!

See the Link for more information.

Ha Ha - Healthy Aging: Humorous Aging

Margie Ingram, founder of the Humor Project in Saratoga Springs, will present the keynote program for the Allegany County Office for the Aging's Fall Forum. The program HA HA - Healthy Aging Humorous Aging will be at the Genesee Valley Central School auditorium on Tuesday, Oct. 26, 2010 at 4 p.m.

Participants are invited to spend an afternoon learning and laughing as Margie presents 10 tips for Aging Well in an upbeat, humorous presentation.

Margie is a popular speaker and workshop leader throughout the United States and abroad. In addition to her speaking and consulting, Margie has served as coordinator of The HUMOR Project's international conference on "The Positive Power of Humor, Hope and Healing," which has attracted over 22,000 people from all 50 states and six continents. She creates opportunities for participants to apply the content of her programs to their immediate lives. A confirmed optimist, she helps others transform difficult challenges into opportunities for hope, possibility, and potential.

Following Margie's program, the Office for the Aging will conduct its annual public hearing, asking participants their opinions on issues affecting elders in Allegany County. Anyone wishing to attend the public hearing only can come at 5 p.m. and will not have to make a reservation.

A beef-on-weck dinner in the cafeteria will conclude the Forum. The cost of the program and the dinner is $5. Reservations are required and can be made by calling the Office for the Aging at 607.268.9390.
