Alfred BFA/MFA exhibition in New York City June 9-16

Alfred University's School of Art & Design will be having an exhibition of selected BFA and MFA work in New York City June 9-16, thanks to the generosity of Trustee Michele Cohen and Marty Cohen. Hours each day will be 11 am - 6 pm, except Sunday, June 13, when it is closed.

The ground-floor location, with high visibility, is located in the Gem Hotel, 300 W. 22nd St. "Profile 2010: School of Art and Design at Alfred University" will feature several dozen works by our 2010 BFA and MFA graduates. The artists were recommended by faculty and then chosen by co-curators Mary Drach McInnes and Kevin Jacobs. The final selection will be announced after BFA Senior Shows. The curators hope that the exhibition will highlight the full range of practices within the School of Art's program, including: ceramics; expanded media; drawing; painting and photography; and sculpture.

"Profile 2010: School of Art and Design at Alfred University" will be open to the public June 9-16. Kevin is working with the Division of Enrollment Management to plan an event for prospective students on Tuesday, June. 8.

There will be an opening reception from 6-9 p.m. Wednesday, June 9. All NYC alumni, as well as selected guests, are being invited to the reception. Paul Neuman '77, will be catering the event.

The University and the School of Art & Design are very appreciative of all that Michele and Marty Cohen are doing to make this exhibition happen. Michele and Marty have very graciously offered to cover costs involved, which range from preparing the space for the exhibition to transportation, staffing (by Kevin and AU art students), and the reception. It is truly a generous offer, and important for increasing the visibility of Alfred University, particularly the art school, in a market that is increasingly important to us.

The occasion will also allow us to introduce the Cohen Gallery website, where faculty, alumni and visiting artists may sell their work, to a wide audience. The gallery site is a collaborative effort, bringing together students from art and business. It, as well as the space on campus that is the physical Cohen Gallery, and the new foundation studio for the School of Art & Design, are also a result of the Cohens' generosity.

Organizing the show is a joint effort by the School of Art & Design, and the Career Development Center, where Kevin is the career advisor working with art students. Kevin is also coordinator for the Cohen Gallery.

Strategic Opportunity Stipends (SOS) Deadline: May 25, 2010

Strategic Opportunity Stipends (SOS) provide grants designed to help individual artists of all disciplines take advantage of specific, unique opportunities that will significantly benefit their work or career. These are $100-$600 grants for forthcoming opportunities (not necessarily projects) that are distinct from an artist's ongoing work. The next deadline is May 25, 2010. This deadline is for opportunities occurring between July 1 and Oct. 31, 2010.

To apply:

1. Applicants must be at least 18 years old and a full-time resident for the past year of one of the participating New York State counties (see step 3 or page 6 of the application. NOTE: SOS is NOT available to residents of the 5 boroughs of New York City). Applicants cannot be enrolled in a graduate or undergraduate degree program at the time of application.

2. Complete the application by downloading the PDF:
<http://www.nyfa.org/level...>

3. Submit the application to your regional SOS administrator: <http://www.nyfa.org/level...>

Concert: Behind the Groove with Percussionist Jeff Haynes

Thursday, May 20 at 7 p.m.
Nancy Howe Auditorium at the David A. Howe Public Library, 155 N. Main St., Wellsville

Enjoy this live percussion and banjo performance, while exploring the dynamics of the unspoken language and creative energy happening on stage. Percussionist Jeff Haynes and Richie Stearns, contemporary banjo player/songwriter, will talk about what happens "behind the groove" and take questions from the audience between selections. (Jeff Haynes presented a percussion concert in February 2009 that was one of the most outstanding programs of the year.)

This library-sponsored concert is free and open to the general public.

The Iliad, Odyssey and All of Greek Mythology in 99 Minutes or Less

Performed by the Players of Allegany County
Nancy Howe Auditorium at the David Howe Public Library, 155 N. Main St., Wellsville

Friday, 5/21 at 7 p.m., Tickets $9
Saturday, 5/22 at 7 p.m., Tickets $9
Sunday, 5/23 at 2 p.m., Tickets $8

As the title suggests, take all of Greek Mythology and the great works of the Iliad and the Odyssey, and cram them into a 99-minute show. This comedy also takes this subject and makes it relatable to today's society and gives the audience a greater understanding of the subject in general. The show pokes fun and describes Greek mythology in unique and versatile ways. It includes turning the love stories into a dating game, Greek tragedies into sports highlights, as well as audience participation and fun for the whole family.

Written by Jay Hopkins and John Hunter.
