

Geneseo defeats AU volleyball in three games

10/02/02

ALFRED Looking to notch another victory, the Alfred University women's volleyball team (1-13, 0-6 Empire 8) put up a good fight, but was defeated by SUNY Geneseo 19-30, 22-30, 23-30 Wednesday night in the McLane center. Freshman outside hitter Beth Sanger (Greece/Arcadia) displayed an outstanding performance despite the loss. Sanger tallied 24 digs, put down six kills, and served three aces for the Saxons. Senior middle hitter Jill Culeton (Victor/Victor) managed four kills and 12 digs while senior setter Erin Murray (Candor/Candor) added 13 assists and three digs for AU. Junior defensive specialist Amanda Vizcarra (Gasport/Royalton-Hartland) and sophomore outside hitter KC Lee (Winthrop, WA/Liberty Bell) played strong defensively contributing eight and five digs respectively for Alfred. The Lady Saxons next game will be Friday, Oct. 4th at the Hartwick Invitational.
