Experience German Cars, Culture, and Life

Ever wonder how cars and trucks are made? How humans and robots can work together? How lean manufacturing/lean engineering works? How businesses compete for customer market share globally? What it is like to be inside a medieval city? What a day in the life of a German college student is really like? What makes Munich one of the most popular destinations for tourists?

All these will be covered in the Allen Term 2017 class on the German Auto Industry. If you are interested, come to an information session Wednesday, March 23 at 4:45 p.m. in Olin 308.

Living a Life of Design: What We Can Learn from the Vignellis

Date: Wednesday, March 16

Time: 7 p.m.

Location: Binns Merrill Hall, Room 106

Cost: N/A

Sponsored by: Expanded Media

Jan Conradi, visiting designer and author, shares insights and ideas from her new book, "Lella and Massimo Vignelli: Two Lives, One Vision." Massimo and Lella Vignelli focused on a modernist philosophy of designing for a better society: resourceful use of space and materials, clear communication, lasting quality and logical functionality.

The effectiveness of their approach is evident as Vignelli design surrounds us. Can a Vignelli pattern of living and working inspire us to develop our own vision of a life of design?

Jan Conradi is professor of graphic design at Rowan University, Glassboro, NJ. Her newest book, "Lella and Massimo Vignelli: Two Lives, One Vision," from RIT Press was released in July 2014. Her previous book, "Unimark International: The Design of Business and the Business of Design," was published in 2010 by Lars Miller.

She has lectured at many schools and design conferences on topics of design history and design education; her projects and course materials have been featured in books by Phil Meggs, Rob Carter, Elizabeth Resnick, and Steven Heller.

Jan is a member of AIGA and SoTA (The Society of Typographic Aficionados). Along with writing and teaching, Jan is active with her letterpress and freelance design studio.

Saakumu-Music/Dance Troupe from Ghana Returns to Alfred!

Bernard Woma and Saakumu return to AU for three days of workshops in music and dance, culminating in a performance at 7:30 P.M. Friday, March 18 in Miller Theater.

The concert will feature the colorful music and dance of Ghana and will include AU students in the performance.

Saakumu is a group of 12 dancer/musicians from Ghana and this is a concert not to miss. When the group was here in 2011 we filled Miller Theater, so come early. This event is free and begins at 7:30.

'Delicate Decisions' at Cohen Gallery

"Delicate Decisions" is a two-person show featuring the functional ceramics of recent College of Ceramics graduates Luc Hammond-Thomas and Jess Detweiler.

In her work, Detweiler employs a playful attraction to form, volume, color, and elegance. The still-life, genre style display evokes fantasies about future domestic use.

Hammond-Thomas' work acts on the fundamental relationship between pottery and furniture, and how this pairing further expands each material's function. The work embraces the latent duality of functional objects as sculpture.

Buy Your Dinner Theater Tickets by Thursday

You are invited to accompany Alice to Wonderland and through the looking glass during the Alfred State Drama Club's fifth annual dinner theater performance, "Alice in Wonderland," Thursday, March 31 to Saturday, April 2 at the Lake Lodge, 6107 Terbury Road, Alfred Station.

Performing Eva Le Gallienne's and Florida Friebus' adaptation of Lewis Carroll's Alice books, a cast of 16 actors will portray more than 30 characters from both "Alice's Adventures in Wonderland" and "Through the Looking Glass and What Alice Found There."

This year's Alice-themed menu is pear salad, glazed carrots, duchess twice-baked potatoes, penne with rustic marinara, orange marmalade haddock, and flank steak with chocolate sauce and sauteed mushrooms, cheesecake with assorted toppings, and coffee and teas served at intermission.

As in previous years, there will be a full cash bar open during the dinner hour and at intermission. Dinner begins at 6 p.m.

Tickets for dinner theater are $20 per person and must be reserved by Thursday, March 17 through the Alfred State Campus Store at 607.587.4020. As ASC is on break this week, bookstore hours are 8 a.m.-4 p.m. The store accepts cash, check, credit cards, student campus spending account, and meal swipes.

If you'd like to visit Wonderland without dinner, please come to the Wednesday evening performance on March 30 at 7 p.m. Tickets for that show, which will be available at the door and for reservation through the campus store, are $2 for students and $5 for general admission. A bus will run to and from campus before and after the performance, and there will be an opening night dessert reception after that show.

"Alice in Wonderland (Le Galliene and Friebus)" is presented by special arrangement with Samuel French, Inc.
