Service information for Ryan Ellis

Dear students, faculty and staff,

Calling hours for Ryan Ellis are 4 to 7pm on Wednesday at Perkins Funeral Home in Dryden, NY. His funeral is at 11:00 am on Thursday at the same location. A Celebration of Life will follow immediately afterward at the Dryden Fire Hall.

The family invites the AU community but would appreciate knowing about how many might attend, so it would be nice if anyone who is planning to go would let me know so that I can give them an approximate count. Also, please let me know if you'd like to attend the funeral and Celebration but do not have a ride; I would like to help with transportation.

Thank you, and please keep the Ellis family and Ryan's friends in your thoughts during this very difficult time.

Senior Shows

Senior Shows

Date: Saturday, May 11
Time: 4-7 P.M.
Location: Binns Merrill Hall, Harder Hall, Davis Gym
Cost to Attend: Free/Open to Public

Visitors from throughout Western New York and beyond are invited to Alfred Saturday the 11th for the opening of the annual Senior Shows, an exhibition of the work of the 101 graduating candidates for the Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from the School of Art & Design at Alfred University. The AU Senior Shows, which are a requirement for graduation from Alfred University's acclaimed School of Art & Design, have become a major attraction for art lovers, who are drawn to Alfred for the opportunity to see work by some of the country's most promising young artists. The event promises to be an exciting multi-disciplinary display of talent.

Graduate Assistantship Available

Alfred University's Center for Student Involvement is seeking candidates for a graduate assistantship. The 20 hour/week position is created to provide weekend night supervision to the Powell Campus Center, the hub of campus life at AU. The graduate student would supervise and/or support student managers, staff, and volunteers who are presenting numerous events in both the Nevins Theater (weekly film series) and our Knight Club (bands, comedians, novelty acts).

AU seeks candidates with experience in event-planning, student organization leadership, and crisis management skills.

Children's Literature Exhibit at Alfred State

A Children's Literature exhibit is on display at the Hinkle Memorial Library Gallery at Alfred State College through Sunday, May 5.

Hinkle Librarian Barbara Greil and Instructional Support Assistant Jenny Hillenbrand organized this exhibit in celebration of National Library Week, April 14-20. Contacting local and regional artists, authors and illustrators, as well as faculty and staff from both Alfred State College and Alfred University, they have brought together a wide variety of work, highlighting the importance of libraries, reading, literature, and learning.

The exhibit includes custom-made American Library Association READ Posters featuring Alfred State College "celebrities" posing with their favorite books, designed and created by Hillenbrand.

Also featured are an extensive collection of ingenious children's pop-up books, on loan from Alfred University professor and artist Anne Currier. Alfred State College faculty member Janice Stafford, who teaches a popular course on children's literature, has lent an original numbered print from the first Harry Potter book; a signed and numbered print by author/illustrator Mo Willem's Caldecott Honor book "Don't Let the Pigeon Drive the Bus"; as well as an original collage by Bryan Collier, an award-winning author and illustrator.

Susan Beckhorn, Suzanne Valentine, and Marsha Hayles, members of RACWI (Rochester Area Children's Writers and Illustrators) have contributed original Illustrations, poetry, books, inspirational objects, and educational materials.

Help us celebrate National Library Week as well as the art and influence of children's literature!

For information on visitor parking and library hours consult the Hinkle Library web page at <http://www.alfredstate.edu...> If you would like to inquire about use of the gallery please email HillenJB@alfredstate.edu.
