11/22/17

ALFRED, NY AU Fresh, the food service provider for Alfred University, is looking for photographs of culinary creations to adorn the walls of the new Community Table dining venue in Powell Campus Center.

AU Fresh is holding a photography contest where the subject matter is food. Entries could be a favorite recipe; a social dining event; anything fun to do with food. Submissions for the contest are due by Dec. 15 and should be emailed to Marie Williams at williamsmz@alfred.edu.

One winning entry will be chosen and awarded $100 in dining dollars. Four entrants will win honorable mention and each be awarded $25 in dining dollars each. The winning photographs, chosen by a panel of judges, will be displayed in the Community Table, the new dining space in the former Li&l Alf Café in Powell Campus Center, for the remainder of the 2017-18 academic year.

Organizers want the contest to be an annual event, held during the fall semesters with winners& photos displayed in the Community Table through the spring semesters.
