

Communications/French major receives fourth annual Hoover Fiat Lux Fund Award

5/15/07

Silas Albrecht of Winchendon, MA, a senior communications studies/French major at Alfred University in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, is the recipient of the fourth annual Sharon Hoover Fiat Lux Fund Award. This fund honors Dr. Sharon Hoover who advised the Fiat Lux (student newspaper) for 15 years prior to her retirement. The award is designed to support those activities that enrich, promote, and sustain the vision of the independent, student-run, campus newspaper. Albrecht is the incoming editor-in-chief of the Fiat Lux. The $500 Hoover Award will allow him to participate in a summer journalism experience. He is a son of Gerald Albrecht and Pamela Sparling.
