Open Call: Light Matter Film Festival

Friday, July 15 2022 to Friday, September 9 2022

2022 Light Matter Experimental Film and Media Arts Festival
November 4-6, 2022

Entries Due: September 9

The second annual Light Matter Festival will be held in person in Alfred, NY over the weekend of November 4-6.

Light Matter is an annual festival dedicated to the artists moving image, seeking to bring together works of experimental film, video art, and the media arts. Conventional films need not apply. Preference will be given to shorts, but features will be considered.

As a young festival with limited resources, Light Matter will present approximately four to six programs. Screenings will take place in Holmes Auditorium on the campus of Alfred University. Suitable works will also be selected for an exhibition in the TS1 / Harland Snodgrass Gallery, which features a range of possibilities for multi-channel work.

Human Library Volunteers Needed

A human library is an international initiative that aims to address the prejudices people have, by allowing participants to have conversations with those they may not typically engage with.

In a collaborative effort, the libraries of Alfred (Alfred Box of Books Library, Alfred State Hinkle Library, and Alfred University Libraries) will be hosting a Human Library event Wednesday, September 14 from 5-7pm.

Interested in volunteering? Email alfred@stls.org.

Campus Wide Event Planning Calendar

Details:

Announcing a new campus wide event planning Outlook calendar. In an effort to encourage collaborative programming and communication across departments, and to minimize the creation of competing events, a new Outlook calendar was created for those involved in planning programs. The calendar is published and editable!

Add the AUEvents calendar from the directory to your list of calendars to see what's coming up.

Add your planning schedule- even TBD events to hold a place and announce your events. Add your public events, faculty and council meetings, academic calendar events, lectures, open meetings, etc. Discover potential collaborations and avoid double booking students and staff.

This is a new effort resulting from a series of productive open meetings initiated by Mechele Romanchock . The meeting included "folks involved in campus events gathered to share confirmed or tentative plans for the coming academic year, brainstormed ideas with others and sparked collaboration while combating the unintentional siloing that can sometimes happen on campus." Not all who wanted to could attend this meeting. Plans are in the works to create a regular, perhaps monthly dialogue.

HOW TO ADD:

From Webmail

1. Go to Outlook calendar
2. Click Add Calendar
3. Select add from directory
4. Type AUEvents@alfred.edu > choose "my calendars", "people's calendars" or "other Calendars" depending on how you organize
5. From there you should be able to edit/ add events to the calendar

Goody bags for New Students

It is that time of year again! We are preparing to welcome all our new students to campus. If your office would like to have information or some swag put in the bags for all incoming students we are preparing 450 bags.

We will be stuffing bags on Thursday, August 25 at 2 pm in the Joyce Walton Center, if a member of your staff could join us to help that would be great! If you need to send us your materials before hand you can direct them to Emma McDowell in the Student Experience office.
