

Alfred University women's soccer falls to Keuka in overtime, 2-1

9/21/04

Keuka Park, NY The Alfred University women's soccer team lost its second in a row on Tuesday night to Keuka College, 2-1. Alfred's sophomore forward Chelsea Hall (Elmira/Elmira Free Academy) did her best to push the contest into overtime by scoring the game's second goal with only 1:30 to go in the game. Sophomore midfielder Kristin Klein (Middletown/Goshen) was credited with the assist. The equalizer was not enough however, as Keuka's Donna Maltagliati scored at 4:53 in overtime to clinch the victory for Keuka. Sophomore Brianna Paquette (West Burke, VT/St. Johnsbury Academy) made three saves in goal for AU (4-4-0, 0-1-0 Empire 8). Alfred is in action next on Saturday, Sept. 25, at 1 p.m. at Hartwick.
