

Men's tennis team shut out at RIT; two matches postponed

4/16/07

ROCHESTER, NY The Alfred University men's tennis team dropped an Empire 8 Conference match at RIT, 9-0, Saturday afternoon. The Saxons (1-6, 1-4 Empire 8) were scheduled to play this afternoon against visiting Empire 8 foe Nazareth and Tuesday, April 17, in a non-conference matchup at Roberts Wesleyan, but inclement weather has forced the postponement of both matches. No make-up dates have been set for those matches, or for a previously postponed match at home against Keuka from April 12. The Empire 8 is scheduled to hold its conference championship tournament this weekend, April 21-22, in Rochester.
