

Nine venues open for Alfred Art Walk

3/30/18

ALFRED, NY – Stroll through Alfred, NY, Saturday, April 7, between 6 and 9 p.m. during the Alfred Art Walk and view exhibitions in nine galleries and venues scattered throughout the village.

Alfred Art Walk is free and open to the public. Participating venues include:

The Alfred Ceramic Art Museum. Two exhibitions open that evening.

Fosdick-Nelson Gallery, Alfred University. MFA thesis exhibitions, Corey Mahoney and Maxwell Mittman. Opening reception April 7, 6-9 p.m.; exhibition runs through April 11.

Robert C. Turner Gallery, Alfred University, third floor, Harder Hall. MFA thesis exhibitions, Jiayi Wang and Schuyler Dawson. Opening reception April 7, 6-9 p.m.; exhibition runs through April 11.

Terra Cotta Coffee House, 34 North Main Street. Portraits and illustrations by Emily Krutsch. Opening reception April 7, 6-9 p.m.; exhibition runs April 1-30.

Cohen Gallery, Alfred University, 55 N. Main Street. Two exhibitions: “Hope Zaccagni: Salt and Steel” and “Tim Pauszek: In Cahoots With...” Opening reception 6-9 p.m. April 7; exhibition runs through Aug. 3.

Gallery 2 Gifts of Distinction, 43 North Main Street.

The Rosebush restaurant, 11 North Main Street.

Alfred Sculpture Park, 3 North Main Street: Works by Glenn E. Zweygardt, professor of sculpture emeritus, and faculty, staff and students from the New York State College of Ceramics, Alfred University.

Bret Llewellyn Gallery at Alfred State College, Engineering Technology Building, Third Floor, Room 312. “Annette Heully: Some Other Spring.” Digital media and animation.