

Kentucky Derby Connections

1/12/12

Are you a Kentucky Derby fanatic? Do you have any tales to tell about the great race that you'd be willing to share? Do you have any particular connections to the Kentucky Derby, such as being the owner/part owner of a Derby horse; running a concession at the Derby; running a business directly effected by the Derby; attending some of the Derby's auxiliary activities, etc. In the April edition of Alfred Online we would like to run a feature which highlights all of the Alfred University connections to the Kentucky Derby. If you have something to share, please e-mail Debbie Clark at clarkd@alfred.edu.
