

Performing Arts Division, Career Development Center Hosting Panel on Interviewing Skills

1/23/20

Corey Fecteau, Zachary Hamm and Eliza Beckwith will lead a discussion of interviewing skills

ALFRED, NY – It's the night before a job interview, and you're asking yourself:

What should I wear?

How do I project confidence (without appearing cocky)?

What questions should I ask? What questions are they going to ask me?

And more!

If you're anticipating an interview for a position in the performing arts, consider attending a panel discussion on interviewing skills, sponsored by the Alfred University Division of Performing Arts and the Robert R. McComsey Career Development Center. The panel will be held at 6pm Wednesday Jan. 29 in Room 220 of the Miller Performing Arts Center.

Leading the discussion will be: Zachary Hamm, Clinical Associate Professor/Technical Director for the Performing Arts Division; Eliza Beckwith, visiting instructor of Theater; and Corey Fecteau, Art Advisor/Service Learning Coordinator for the Career Development Center.
