

AU English equestrian team competes at Cazenovia

3/05/07

CAZENOVIA, NY The Alfred University English equestrian team competed at Cazenovia Saturday. There were no team scores. Earning first-place ribbons for AU were freshman Robyn Murray (Voorheesville, NY/Holy Names) and sophomore Lyndsey Patterson (Belmont, NH/Belmont) in advanced walk-trot-canter. Freshman Beth Ulbrecht (Penn Furnace, PA/State College) took first place in novice equitation over fences, and second in novice equitation on the flat while sophomore Caitlin Hartman (Henrietta, NY/Rush-Henrietta) finished first in novice equitation on the flat and second in novice equitation over fences. Other top riders for Alfred included senior Ashley Conway (Middlebury, VT/Middlebury Union), second open equitation on the flat and sixth in open equitation over fences; freshman Joey Turro (Wantage, NJ/High Point Regional) second in walk-trot-canter; sophomore Noelle Orłowski (Wilson, NY/Mt. St. Mary Academy) third in novice equitation on the flat; freshman Kate West (Pavilion, NY/Pavilion Central) third in novice equitation on the flat; junior Lisa Landis (New City, NY/Clarkstown North) fourth in open equitation on the flat. Sophomore Shaina Muir (Powell, OH/Dublin-Scioto) fourth in open equitation over fences; sophomore Theresa Wills (Ransomville, NY/Lewiston-Porter) fifth in open equitation on the flat; sophomore Katie Mix (Warsaw, NY/Warsaw) sixth in open equitation on the flat; sophomore Kat Kennedy (Horseheads, NY/Horseheads) fourth in intermediate equitation on the flat and fifth in intermediate equitation over fences; and junior Kim Ringer (Naples, NY/Naples), fifth in intermediate equitation on the flat. The AU English equestrian team is in action next on March 15 at Geneseo.