Alumnus Eric Myers, Class of 1998, reported via Facebook that his Mystery Brewing Co.'s LaQuerelle (Belgian-style ale) earned a silver medal at the recent Great American Beer Festival (GABF), Boulder, CO.

The Great American Beer Festival is touted as the premier U.S. beer festival and competition. Each year, GABF represents the largest collection of U.S. beer ever served, in the format of a public tasting event plus a private competition. The Great American Beer Festival is listed as one of the top 1,000 places in the U.S. to visit before you die.

The Mystery Brewing Co., in Hillsborough, NC, has since early 2012, been creating “a cornucopia of high-quality, small-batch, rustic ales for the discriminating consumer, and to test the boundaries of creativity and style.”

Mystery calls itself “rustic.” We don't filter our beer and we don't pasteurize. We don't add artificial chemicals to enhance foam or clarity and aside from hops, we don't add preservatives. You're getting a live product that's as close to the original ingredients as we can get to you.”

The brewery's Public House is at 230 S. Nash St., Hillsborough. For more information, call: 919.245.1325, or visit www.mysterybrewing.com
