Honorary degree recipient dies

Dr. Erich Schuster, recipient of an honorary degree from Alfred University in 1994, passed away at his home in Mainz, Germany on 19 June 2007 at the age of 76.

Dr. Schuster's remarkable professional career was spent nearly entirely with one company - Schott Glassworks (now Schott AG), a world leader in the specialty glass industry. After graduating from high school, he began working as a laboratory technician in 1951 at the Vereinigten Farbenglaswerken in Zwiesel. In 1952 he joined Schott in Mainz, also as a laboratory technician, and remained with Schott until his retirement in 1994.
