

Alfred University to Host Two Graduate School Fairs -- Real and Virtual

10/20/99

Alfred, NY -- The general public as well as students, faculty, staff, and alumni are invited to Alfred University's graduate school fair, set for noon to 2 p.m. Tuesday (Oct. 26) in the Knight Club, Powell Campus Center. Representatives of some three dozen graduate schools will be physically on hand to give out free catalogues, explain programs, and answer questions. Another two dozen schools will be represented on line. Prospective graduate students -- a group not limited to college seniors or even current students -- will be able to find out about the programs offered, admission requirements, and the exams needed for each program at each school, said Kathy Woughter, Director of the Career Development Center at AU. "Programs represented will include Art and Design, Education, MBA, Communications, Performing Arts, Natural Sciences, Social Sciences, Engineering, Speech Pathology, Social Work, Higher Education, International, Counseling and Psychology, Health Professions, High Tech, Criminal Justice, and more," Woughter said. For the current list of graduate schools that will be represented, go to the CDC web site, www.alfred.edu/cdc/. Click on Services to Students, then Upcoming Events. Anyone who has questions may call the CDC, 607 871-2164.
