

Lewis joins Alumni Relations as associate director

7/23/04

Cynthia M. Lewis, a 2000 graduate of Alfred University with a degree in business administration, has joined the University as associate director of Alumni Relations. Among her primary responsibilities will be organizing alumni events, including Reunion. While a student at AU, Lewis completed an internship with the Wellsville Area Chamber of Commerce as an events coordinator, helping to organize the Main Street festival for the Great Wellsville Balloon Rally, which now draws some 900 participants. Following graduation, Lewis remained with the Chamber as events coordinator supervisor. Most recently, she has been a client services coordinator with Employee Services, Inc. A graduate of Whitesville Central School, Lewis now makes her home on Jack Bridge Road in Wellsville. Lewis may be reached at 607 871 2144 or by e-mail: lewiscm@alfred.edu
