

Alfred University volleyball team drops pair at Cazenovia tri-match

10/15/07

Alfred University volleyball team drops pair at Cazenovia tri-matchCAZENOVIA, NY The Alfred University volleyball team lost a pair of matches at the Cazenovia College-hosted tri-match Saturday afternoon. The Lady Saxons lost 3-0 to Buffalo State (30-11, 30-27, 30-21) before dropping a close 3-2 decision to Cazenovia (30-19, 30-20, 25-30, 23-30-, 15-12). In the match against Cazenovia, sophomore Danielle Van Cott (Rochester, NY/Webster Schroeder) had four kills, 13 assists, 11 digs and two blocks to pace AU (2-19, 0-4 Empire 8). Sophomore Emily Steen (Bethlehem, PA/Purnell School) had six kills, two service aces and 11 digs; freshman Tara Quigley (Bluepoint, NY/Bayport-Bluepoint) had eight kills, two service aces, six digs and a pair of blocks; junior Katie Lane (Edison, NY/John P. Stevens) had six kills; senior Stephanie Troiano (Clifton Park, NY/Shenendehowa) had seven kills and 11 digs; freshman Liz Yerico (Forestville, NY/Forestville) had 17 assists; and sophomore Kailey Vandeyar (Clinton Corners, NY/FDR) had four solo blocks. Steen had three kills, seven assists, two digs and a solo block to lead the effort against Buffalo State. Quigley, Troiano, and Van Cott each had four kills and Yerico chipped in with five assists. The Lady Saxons are in action on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 19 and 20, at the Empire 8 Conference Tournament, hosted by Alfred University. On Friday, AU plays St. John Fisher at 4 p.m. and Hartwick at 6 p.m. On Saturday, the Lady Saxons play Stevens at 2:30 p.m. and RIT at 5 p.m.