

Highlights of weekly activities on the Alfred University campus

9/18/06

This week in September features one movie, two musical ensembles, and a Bergren Forum. On Thursday, Sept. 21, Dr. Gordon Atlas will be speaking in the Nevins Theater, Powell Campus Center at 12:10 p.m. on "Snorkeling in Key West." The speaker has recently visited with much underwater life and will be speaking of his experiences with parrotfish, sharks, stingrays, jellyfish and tarpons. Beginning on Friday, Sept. 22, there will be three showings of "Superman Returns," an adventure-drama rated PG-13. The story involves Superman (played by Brandon Routh) who returns to Metropolis after a long time away to find things are not quite as he left them. The movie runs on Friday at 8 and 11 p.m., and on Saturday, Sept. 24, at 2 p.m. in Nevins Theater, Powell Campus Center. Also on Friday, Sept. 22, the music and preaching ministry "The Holyfire" will be performing in the Knight Club, Powell Campus Center. They use music as a tool to reach the hearts of their audiences and to help express their personal contact with "the greatest power on this earth." This musical performance will take place at 9 p.m. On Saturday, Sept. 23, the band "Nous Non Plus" will be playing at 10 p.m., in the Knight Club, Powell Campus Center. The band is comprised of the former band "Les Sans Culottes" and is currently called "The Best French Band in New York". They are a high-energy, pure-fun, rock band.
