

Anja Bache to exhibit narrative art at Ceramic Museum May 10

5/04/17

Past work by artist Anja Bache

Visiting artist Anja Margrethe Bache will construct her own unique narrative of the Alfred community in an exhibition sponsored by Alfred University's School of Art and Design and scheduled for May 10 at 4 p.m. at the Alfred Ceramic Art Museum.

Bache, who holds the Theodore Randal International Chair at Alfred University, reflects in her work on the nature of time and the narrative of local history by inverting archeological excavation and creating artifacts manipulated into temporal axes.

Her exhibition at the Alfred Ceramic Art Museum is titled Lines of Memories and described as a "site specific urban art installation." It is free and open to the public.