

AU men's lacrosse team takes two of three at Maryland fall tournament

10/21/03

PARKTON, MD. -- The Alfred University men's lacrosse team traveled to Parkton, MD, Sunday, Oct. 19, for a fall tournament and won two of three contests. The tournament, played at Genesee Valley, was sponsored by Lax World. AU opened with a 6-4 victory over Goucher College. Junior midfielder Angus Graham (Bethel, ME/Gould Academy) had two goals, while senior attackmen Dylan Macro (Camillus/West Genesee) and Trevor Archer (Penn Yan/Penn Yan), sophomore midfielder Carlo DiRisio (Prattsburgh/Penn Yan) and freshman attack Ryan Weiss (New City/Clarkstown North) each scored once. Senior attack David Vail (Mt. Lakes, NJ/Mt. Lakes) and freshman midfielder Andy German (Radnor, PA/Radnor) each had two assists. Junior Nicholas Hohman (Gibsonia, PA/Pine-Richland) and sophomore Chris Wszalek (West Seneca/West Seneca) split time in goal for AU. The Saxons lost their second game, 6-3 to Franklin & Marshall. AU led F&M, an NCAA tournament participant and the nation's ninth-ranked Division III team last year, 3-1 at the half. Alfred got unassisted goals from senior midfielder Anthony Fiorelli (Endicott/Union-Endicott), Graham and German. Alfred wrapped up the tournament with a 6-4 win over McDaniel, the nation's 15th ranked team from a year ago. DiRisio had a goal and two assists and Vail scored twice to pace the Saxons. Fiorelli had a goal and an assist, while German and Archer each tallied one goal. Wszalek played the majority of the game in net. The Saxon defense was led by junior defenseman Josh Parker (Hamburg/Hamburg), sophomore defenseman Tristan Hujer (Hamburg/St. Francis), freshman defenseman James Powell (Corning/Corning East), freshman defenseman Mike McCarthy (Kinnelon, NJ/Kinnelon), freshman defenseman Kyle Welsh (Vestal/Vestal), freshman defenseman Liam Ealahan (Tully/Tully) and sophomore defenseman Matt Hall (Salt Lake City, UT/Judge Memorial). Freshman goalkeeper Drew Foster (Pittsford/Pittsford-Mendon) played well in limited action. Teams participating in the tournament were Alfred, Gettysburg, Lynchburg, Franklin & Marshall, McDaniel, Hartwick, Marymount, Dickinson, Goucher, Essex, Springfield and Skidmore.