

Alfred University earns four men's tennis all-conference selections

4/28/03

ALFRED The Alfred University men's tennis team earned four selections to the Empire 8 conference all-star squads, the conference announced over the weekend. Senior Bill Tuttle (Hamburg/Hamburg) and junior Randy Vecchione (Seaford/Seaford) were named to the first team for doubles. The duo posted a 7-2 record in first singles for the Saxons and was unbeaten in six conference matches. Vecchione and freshman Andrew Lee (Scarsdale/Edgemont) were each named to the second team in singles. Vecchione had an 8-1 record in second singles for Alfred, while Lee posted a 6-3 singles mark (5-2 in fourth singles; 1-1 in fifth singles). Junior Dave Streib (Baldwinsville/C.W. Baker) earned honorable mention for singles play. Streib was 6-3 in singles matches (5-2 in fifth singles; 1-0 in third singles; 0-1 in fourth singles) in 2003.
