Iron & Wine - At AU - This Week - Get Tickets!

Iron & Wine singer-songwriter Sam Beam is coming to Alfred University! His music is highly influenced by his southern roots and his sound often mimics folk music or eras gone by.

Rolling Stone said of Iron & Wine's music that "Beam surrounds his wide-eyed vocals with vast, spiraling galaxies of Beach Boys harmonies, New Orleans funeral horns, shimmering strings, drum fills and more."

The show is on Sunday, Sept. 21, at 8 P.M. in the Miller Theater.

Tickets are $20 with AU student ID and $25 for everyone else. Get your ticket(s) at the CSI Office on the first floor of the Powell Campus Center or go online to www.showclix.com.

Like Outdoors? Join Us for Friday Night Hikes!

Come join WILD About Alfred for a leisurely hike this Friday at 6 p.m.! A WILD about Alfred representative will lead a hike every Friday when school is in session starting at 6 p.m.

We meet on the first floor of Powell Campus Center (near the mailroom). The hike is a little less than three miles long and takes just over an hour depending on pace.

Even if you have never been on a hike or experienced a forest in your life we will be more than glad to help you experience the wonderful outdoors that the Alfred area has to offer!

Business-related Allen Term Classes

MGMT 300 Topics: US Healthcare Business and Policy

The U.S. health care system operates in an intense, dynamic, and complex environment. As never before, all healthcare consumers - which is all of us - should understand the key components of this system, including its environment and emerging trends. This course covers an overview of the health care system, components of the system (public, private, regulatory, and health care professionals), how we pay for health care, how health care is delivered, health care from the consumer's perspective, and emerging health care issues in the 21st century. Students analyze the impact of events and political decisions on the health care system from both a provider and a consumer point of view. Prerequisite: junior or senior standing.

September: National Preparedness Month

Being prepared for disasters is a shared responsibility. It takes the whole community working together to effectively prepare for, respond to, and recover from the destructive forces of nature and other emergencies and disasters. Let's all start community resiliency building! "Be Aware, Prepare, Volunteer!"

New York State is offering two hour training sessions for residents to have the tools and resources to prepare for any type of disaster, respond accordingly and recover as quickly as possible to pre-disaster conditions.

Each family participating will receive a free Citizen Preparedness Corps Response Starter Kit
Register at: http://www.nyprepare.gov/...

Concert: Dixie Road Band - Country

Thursday, Sept. 18 at 7 p.m.
Nancy Howe Auditorium
David A. Howe Public Library
155 N. Main St., Wellsville
585-593-3410

A new group in the area, this band of three musicians brings in a new wave of today's country and southern rock. Winners of the 2012 Wellsville Texaco Country Showdown at the Howe Auditorium, their music is reminiscent of Jason Aldean and Alan Jackson. These musicians have a wealth of experience and their combined talents are a delight. Enjoy this group whose members originally hailed from Georgia and Salamanca.

The library-sponsored concert is free and open to the general public.
