Universal Design For Learning (UDL) Resources

Universal Design for Learning (UDL) is the practice of creating learning experiences that are appropriate for all students, regardless of disability status or other differences that impact learning. When learning experiences are designed with UDL in mind, they are inherently more accessible.

Additional information and resources are available on AU's UDL web page.

Campus-Wide Shred Event

The Office of Procurement Services is sponsoring a summer shredding event to be held on Wednesday, July 6th.

The Shred-It truck will be parked in the Jordan Hall lot from 8AM until 12PM that morning. If you would like to take advantage of this event, please have your materials delivered to the Jordan Hall parking lot by no later than 11:30 AM that day. Physical Plant will also be able to assist offices that have several boxes of materials to be destroyed. Simply put in a work order by no later than July 5th, and they will make sure that it is taken down to the site. Here are some guidelines for the event:

- Documents must be sensitive in nature. If they are not, then they do not require shredding and should be recycled instead.
- Materials must be removed from binders and folders.

Materials may be stapled, but any binder clips, coils, etc., must be removed. If you have any questions or would like additional information, please call the Procurement Office at 2698.

Kassie McCarn Moving On

It is with much mixed emotion that I share with our community that Kassie McCarn, Assistant Director of the Pamela Lavin Bernstein Center for Advising has accepted a position at the University of Buffalo as a Senior Academic Advisor. Kassie has been instrumental in the development, opening and success of carrying out the mission of the center in assisting our first year students in their onboarding to AU. She will be missed beyond words. Kassie's last day on campus will be Friday, June 24th.
