Guest historian will visit AU and ASC this week

"The Life and Death of British Colonialism in India" will be the subject of a 7 PM lecture on Wednesday, March 28 at Alfred State College's Orvis Activities Center by historian Niels Brimnes. At the end of his talk, Dr. Brimnes will entertain questions. An informal reception will follow.

Dr. Brimnes is currently writing a book about British efforts to eradicate tuberculosis in India before 1947. His talk is being sponsored by both AU and ASC.

He teaches at Aarhus University in Denmark, and is a fellow at Johns Hopkins School of Medicine during the spring semester 2007.

He will also be speaking about the 2005 Danish Cartoon controversy at 12:15 PM on Thursday, March 29 at the Bergren Forum in the Powell Campus Center. Anti-Danish riots erupted in many cities of the Mideast when Danish newspapers published political cartoons of the prophet Mohammed in 2005. The violence raised troubling questions about the limits of freedom of expression.

Finally, Dr. Brimnes will join AU student Melissa Polakos and Prof Gary Ostrower at the Global Studies Roundtable to discuss contemporary Denmark.

7 PM on Thursday in the Powell Knight club.

Last chance to see student art show!

Student Art Show Dates: March 16-28

"Change Me"

Does it suddenly come upon us that we feel melancholy, happy, or empty? Something or someone triggers these sensations. This show examines how emotions change us and how they make us stronger.

Curator: Tiffany Joy Butler '10.

Paper II - A Performance Art Event

Sunday, April 1, starting at noon, running through 8 p.m.
Davis Gym

D. Chase Angier, with the consultation of performance artist Laurel Jay Carpenter, will be performing in an installation designed by Judi Strahota. The interactive sound design is by Tammy Brackett.

An entirely interdisciplinary collaboration, all four women artists contributed their expertise in choreography/performance, performance art, installation art, and sound design while also operating across disciplines, and University Divisions, to fertilize and facilitate this creative work.

Paper II is the second piece in this paper series created by Angier.

Consider taking summer courses at AU!

Summer School in warm, sunny Alfred is a great opportunity to concentrate on one course without the burden of a heavy course load. You can complete a full semester course in as little as two or three weeks, take a full-year of the language requirement, get a head start on the fall semester, or make up a course you failed during the fall or spring.

Summer School registration has begun and will continue through mid-May for Summer Session I and late June for Summer Session II. For the most up-to-date summer course information please access the Summer 2007 schedule in Banner.

An updated full-color version of the Summer School '07 Schedule Booklet is attached. Copies of the printed booklet (with green and white cover) are available at the Student Service Center, the Mail Room and the Office of Summer Programs in Carnegie.

If you have general questions about Summer School and/or non-art summer courses please contact us at 607.871.2612. If you have questions about summer art courses please call the School of Art & Design at 607.871.2412.
