

See you in Cleveland at Ceramics Expo!

4/09/15

Alfred University will be exhibiting at Ceramics Expo April 28-30, at the I-X Center, Cleveland, Ohio and we're inviting all of our friends and colleagues to join us for the launch of this exciting new show! This major industry gathering is the only one of its kind that provides a marketplace for the entire ceramic manufacturing supply chain.

FRIENDS OF ALFRED UNIVERSITY REGISTER FOR FREE!

Attending the exhibition is completely free. Your pass includes access to 150+ ceramics manufacturers and suppliers, a free-to-attend conference in the expo hall, networking receptions and much more!

We'll be at booth #309, so come by and meet the team Tuesday through Thursday.

Doreen Edwards Ph.D., Dean, Inamori School of Engineering, acting vice president for Statutory Affairs, College of Ceramics, will speak on Electrical Conductivity 2 3 p.m., Tuesday, April 28.

Matt Hall Ph.D., Associate Professor of Biomaterials & Glass Science; Director, Center for Advanced Ceramic Technology, will moderate the R&D to Market session 10:30 a.m. - noon Thursday, April 30.

Register for your free pass by following this link.