

Striker earns three All-America honors

3/18/01

BUFFALO Alfred University senior swimmer Todd Striker (Caledonia/York) earned three All-America honors this weekend at the NCAA Division III Men's Swimming and Diving Championships in Buffalo. In the 200 backstroke on Saturday night, Striker was fourth in the nation with the time of 1:51.65 to win All-America honors. All-American honors are awarded to the top eight finishers of each event. On Friday night, Striker swam to a fifth place finish in the 200 freestyle (1:41.16), earning him his second All-American honor in the meet. Striker finished twelfth and set a new school record that was previously held by his brother Brian in the 200 IM consolation finals (1:54.27) to receive Honorable Mention All-America honors.
