

Fairweather 07 offers Developed Asceticism in Illinois gallery

11/19/14

Sculpture by Seth Fairweather, AU Class of 2007 is on display in a gallery show at Illinois Central College (ICC), East Peoria, through Wednesday, Dec. 10.

“Developed Asceticism” is in Gallery 336 B. Seth was introduced to glass at Tulane University in 2001. He transferred to AU, where he graduated with a bachelor of fine arts degree in sculpture and three-dimensional studies. He earned master of fine arts degree from the Tyler School of Art at Temple University, Philadelphia.

Seth has worked across the country, both fabricating for other people and developing his own artistic work. He has taught at private studios, public access studios, and at the University of Miami-Coral Gables. He is currently researching alternative energy usage in glass art in the Arizona desert.

The ICC art galleries are open Monday through Thursday, from 9:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. and Friday from 9:30 a.m. to noon. Operation of the galleries may vary due to holidays or the academic schedule. For more information, visit ArtsAtICC.com.
