Alfred University Symphony Orchestra featuring violinist Curtis Stewart

Stewart will perform "Knight Music" a fantastic arrangement of Joseph Bologne's Violin Concerto No. 9 in G major, Op. 8.

Bologne is often referred to as the Mozart Noir, was a swashbuckling violinist of Guadelupe, born to both slave and nobleman, who was known for his masterful swordsmanship, virtuosity, and charm. This concerto indulges in a bit of historic fiction - reimagining what the Chevalier's music might have been like had he not been sent east to France, but north to America - embracing what would become the African American contribution to musical culture - Blues, Spiritual, and Caribbean music - all framed within the original sparkling Classicism.

In addition to the concerto, the orchestra will perform the Saint Saens Bacchanal and the first movement of Beethoven's Symphony No. 1 in C major, Op. 21.

This concert is free and open to the public.

Step out to experience Live Music !

Campus Menorah

Hillel has some funds to commission a campus menorah. We want this menorah to be crafted here at Alfred by our own students. We're seeking an artist who can design and create a mixed-medium menorah that is large. The mixed mediums I think would go well are glass, clay, and iron.

We want this to be an AU community menorah, that we can put next to the fiat lux sign with the purple Christmas trees to represent the different identities we have here at Alfred.

Other important information includes;

use of purple and gold colors,

9 cups for candles,

also large think 6' 6" tall

Submit drawings to scale and an estimated budget with your proposal.

Our due date for this piece would be the last day of classes, however, if it can't be done, we are willing to accept it for next year.
