Hunting Season in Western New York

For your safety, we would like to notify you of this year's date range for big game hunting season in Western New York. The first season begins Saturday, Oct. 16 this year (sunrise to sunset), and the final season is over on Tuesday, Dec. 21.

Please be very careful if you decide to walk in any wooded area during this time. If you do, wear blaze orange or some other very bright color. If you see a POSTED sign, get the landowner's permission to enter or you could be fined for trespassing.

Hunting is not allowed on Alfred University property which includes the woods behind the campus and around Foster Lake.

Are You Involved in Community Service?

The Office of Communications is working on an upcoming edition of Alfred Online which will feature articles on alumni, student, and faculty/staff involvement in community service and volunteer work. If you are one of those people, please contact Debbie Clark at clarkd@alfred.edu, or Ext. 2040 and relate your story, including the type of work you do and where you volunteer. Some of the responses will be followed up with a request for a photo shoot. Thanks for your cooperation.

Domestic Violence Vigil, Dance, Displays: Oct. 13

Alfred University students are planning an array of activities to raise awareness of domestic violence on college campuses. On Wednesday, Oct. 13, students will coordinate an evening vigil preceded by several community art projects.

The events are a collaborative effort between AU and the ACCORD Corp. coinciding with October's designation as the Domestic Violence Awareness Month (DVAM).

The student organizers will begin the day wearing purple shirts to illustrate that domestic violence is not always obvious. The shirts will read "I AM ABUSED" and their faces will be painted with excessive bruises or exaggerated tears. The back of the shirts will provide statistics about the topic.

Another group of students are choreographing silent dances about the four categories of violence; physical, sexual, emotional, and psychological. These dances will be performed from 3 until 5 p.m. on the half-hour.

An additional team of students will create a visual education campaign regarding the topic using sculptures based on the Rock'em Sock'em Robots with a striking contrast of violence seen through a different lens.

The day will culminate with a 6 p.m. dusk candlelight vigil with guest speakers. The vigil will be held at the King Alfred Statue on the south end of campus. The community is invited to attend and asked to wear purple, the official color of the educational movement. For more information, or offers to speak, contact Director of Student Activities at napolitano@alfred.edu or 607.871.2175.

Author Visit: Nancy Lynch Steele - 'Vietnam Mailbag'

Tuesday, Oct. 12 at 7 p.m.
Nancy Howe Auditorium
David A. Howe Public Library
155 N. Main St., Wellsville
585.593.3410

Author Nancy Lynch Steele will discuss her book "Vietnam Mailbag" that was developed from letters she received for her column in the Wilmington Morning News about men and women who served in Vietnam during the war years. It tells the story of troops at war - through the letters they wrote a generation ago and through a series of moving interviews with veterans who now share their views on how the Vietnam experience shaped their lives.

This library-sponsored program is free and open to the general public.
