Flood Relief, Part II - Volunteers Needed

Volunteers are needed to travel to Owego, Saturday, Oct. 1 to aid in flood cleanup at Beds 4 Kids, a non-profit organization that donates furniture to those in need.

Beds 4 Kids collects overstocked and gently used beds and furniture from retailers and universities for distribution to needy families. The recent Central/Southern Tier New York flooding brought 4 feet of water into the facility, destroying thousands of tons of furniture and mattresses and damaging parts of the building.

The group of volunteers from Alfred will be helping to clean the facility and rebuild damaged storage areas for future furniture donations.

Transportation and lunch will be provided. For more information on the trip, contact Jennings at jennings@alfred.edu or call 607-871-2162.

Gary Setzer LIVE @ STUDIO Visits!

Join us for STUDIO VISITS this Wednesday morning at 9 a.m. at Nevins! Our guest is artist Gary Setzer who will talk about his interdisciplinary work followed by a lively interview by the sculpture graduate students on our brand new set!

Gary Setzer is an interdisciplinary artist and an Assistant Professor of Art at the University of Arizona. His performances, installations, objects, and videos have been exhibited and screened extensively.

Setzer has recently toured his new performance work, Supralingual/Sublingual: The Tongue is the Terrain across the United States. With stops in New York, Brooklyn, Chicago, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Denver, New Orleans, and Austin (among others), he provided gallery audiences with what the Huffington Post called "a phenomenal hybrid of his own, integrating video, music and performance." In 2008, Setzer's performance work, Simultaneous Repellents (Repressed Sentient, Oppressed S♦ance), debuted in London at the Slade School of Fine Art. In May of 2010, Setzer received the Louise Foucar Marshall Professorship-a distinguished honorary title and award.

Author Visit: Barbara Hacha, Author of 'Line by Line'

Tuesday, Sept. 27 at 7 p.m.
Nancy Howe Auditorium
David A. Howe Public Library
155 N. Main St., Wellsville
585.593.3410

"Line by Line," a historical novel by Barbara Hacha set in the Great Depression, tells the story of a young woman who flees her central Ohio town by freight train determined to carve out a life on her own terms. Part of the story takes place in Auburn and the Finger Lakes region.

Barbara will read from her book and speak about the hobo culture, Prohibition in the Finger Lakes area of New York, the Bonus March in Washington, D.C., and other aspects of life during the Depression.

Barbara writes both fiction and nonfiction and is a freelance editor of textbooks in the humanities, computer books, and works of fiction.

This library-sponsored program is free and open to the general public.
