On-campus memorial planned for Elizabeth Robinson Judson '82

The University is working on plans for a memorial event for the late Elizabeth (Beth) Robinson Judson '82, to be held on campus in the spring. Beth and her husband, James Judson Jr. died in an airplane crash on Oct. 26, 2010 < <http://alfredmagazine.alf...> >

Tentative plans are for the service to be held in March 2011, near St. Patrick's Day. As a graduate of the School of Engineering, Beth enjoyed St. Patrick's Day festivities. She continued the AU tradition of celebrating St. Patrick's Day; she and Jim hosted the annual celebration for Atlanta-area alumni at their home.

?The Rev. Laurie DeMott, interfaith advisor for the University; Kathy Woughter, vice president for Student Affairs; Julia Overton-Healy, director of the Women's Leadership Center and others who worked closely with Beth in her roles as trustee, and founding member of the Women's Leadership Center's advisory board, are planning the service.

The University is also discussing what an appropriate memorial for Beth would be.

Any alumni and friends who are interested in assisting with the event are asked to contact Kathy Woughter at 607.871.2132 or email her at woughter@alfred.edu
