

AU softball team drops two on last day of tournament

3/15/04

FT. MYERS, FL. The Alfred University softball team lost two games against Beloit College and Wheaton College on Friday the final day of the Ft. Myers Tournament. In the game against Beloit, freshman catcher Gretchen Weidner (Eden/Eden) led Alfred at the plate by going 2-for-3 with an RBI, while freshman shortstop Lauren Mastin (Springwater/Wayland-Cohocton) went 2-for-3 with an RBI. Sophomore pitcher Brittany Curran (Alfred/Alfred-Almond) pitched a complete game for AU, recording five strikeouts, while allowing six runs on nine hits. In the second game, three players for AU, Weidner, sophomore third baseman Emilie Vicchio (Shaker Heights, OH/Shaker Heights), and junior shortstop Andriea Crandall (Almond/Alfred/Almond) each had one hit on three trips to the plate. Junior Janelle Villone (Honeoye/Honeoye) went five and a third innings on the mound for AU, then Curran came in to finish the remainder of the game. The Lady Saxons are back in action on Saturday, March 27, at 1 p.m. against Medaille College.
