

AU men's swimming and diving team finishes season ranked nationally

3/29/06

ALFRED, NY The Alfred University men's swimming and diving team is ranked in the top 25 nationally by CollegeSwimming.com, a leading on-line provider of information on collegiate swimming and diving. Alfred is 25th in CollegeSwimming.com's final 2006 Division III rankings. The Saxons are second among teams from the Empire 8 Conference and Upper New York State Collegiate Swimming Association (UNYSCSA) and have the sixth-highest ranking among all Division III programs in New York State. Alfred was runner-up in both the UNYSCSA and Empire 8 Conference championships, held last month. The Saxons will return 14 letterwinners to a team that went 8-1 in dual meets (4-1 Empire 8) in 2005-06.
