AU Judicial Board Training

FACULTY - STAFF - STUDENTS-

We are looking for new members for our student judicial boards. A student code of conduct and judicial hearing process can be an important tool in teaching students how to be productive members of our academic community. In order to meet that goal it is imperative that our boards reflect the campus community. If you are interested in being involved a member, please send an e-mail to judicial@alfred.edu.

Global Awareness Roundtable: Germany

The Global Awareness Roundtable will focus on Germany -- its history, culture, politics and language -- with Jorg Pomplun, a Fulbright teaching assistant from Germany making the presentation at 7 p.m. Wednesday in the Knight Club, Powell Campus Center.

Pomplun received degrees in English and music from Humbolt University and the University of Berlin. He is teaching two courses this year, and is involved in a number of extracurricular activities, including serving as concertmaster of the AU orchestra. He lives at the Language House, which this year is devoted to the study of German.

The Global Awareness Roundtable is a monthly event designed to introduce the Alfred community to a variety of cultures around the world.

Monster Diversity Leadership Program - Free to Attend!

The Career Development Center reminds students the deadline to apply for this fun-filled professional development is Thursday, April 30. Each year many AU students attend these trainings and win scholarships!

Connect. Learn. Be Inspired.

The Monster Diversity Leadership Programs (DLP) is designed to empower top college students in a dynamic, collaborative setting. These free programs offers rising sophomores, juniors, and seniors of diverse backgrounds a venue for leadership and career development to navigate personal and professional success in the 'real world.'

In 2009, 3,000 like-minded student leaders will connect with some of the nation's most inspiring speakers and top organizations; uncovering topic areas of diversity, leadership, and career development all over the course of an energetic, jam-packed weekend.
