

Global Awareness Roundtable celebrates Latino heritage

9/22/04

Latino heritage will be the focus of this month's Global Awareness Roundtable, taking place at the Powell Campus Center Knight Club on Monday, Sept. 27, at 7 p.m. The roundtable discussion will discuss the role of Latinos in the U.S. with a particular emphasis on music. Participants include AU students Joshua Araujo, Aris Rodriguez, Andreina Simet, Jonas Alcantara and Caroline de Leon. The Global Awareness Roundtable is an informal monthly event designed to introduce members of the Alfred community to a variety of global cultures. The event is free to members of the community. For more information, contact the Division of Modern Languages at (607) 871-2181.