Sales Tax Reminder

Alfred University is a tax-exempt organization within New York State. Any merchandise shipped to AU from another state is a tax-exempt purchase and the exemption certificate can be used with hotel accommodations.

The University is also tax exempt for merchandise that you physically purchase in the following states Connecticut, Florida, and Massachusetts. These exemption certificates cannot be used for hotel stays.

The University is also tax exempt in New Jersey for both merchandise and hotel accommodations.

At the time of a purchase the cardholder must tell the vender they are tax exempt and present a tax exemption certificate if necessary. If the cardholder does not then it is their responsibility to contact the vendor for a credit. Most vendors will credit back the tax once they receive a tax exemption form. For most Internet purchases you make you will see sales tax at the final checkout so you will need to contact the vendor to receive the sales tax credit.

We cannot stress how important it is to let the vendor know at the time of purchase that you are making a tax exempt purchase for your organization. These additional costs are also depleting your departmental budget.

The tax exemption certificates are available on the Procurement Services Web site link listed below under forms.

Local Author Visit: Thomas Rasmussen

Thursday, June 10 at 7 p.m.

Nancy Howe Auditorium at the David A. Howe Public Library, 155 N. Main St., Wellsville

The book "Ox Cart to Automobile, Social Change in Western New York" by Thomas Rasmussen explores changes in economic fortunes, social life, and political issues over 200 years in Western New York. As the oxcart was replaced by the railroad, which in turn was replaced by the automobile, men and women were faced with the option to choose to farm in new ways or live and work in new places.

Join in the discussion to discover Allegany County's part in the transition. Books will be available to purchase and to be signed.

The library-sponsored program is free and open to the general public.

The work of Alfred Sculpture Professor Coral Lambert is featured in "Nature Rules," an exhibition of outdoor sculpture curated by the Brooklyn Waterfront Artists Coalition on Governors Island, located between Manhattan and Brooklyn.

Allegany County Office for the Aging Needs Advocates

An Ombudsman Training sponsored by the Allegany County Office for the Aging will be held in Belmont, at Saint Philip's Episcopal Church on Tuesday-Thursday, June 22, 23, 24, and Monday-Wednesday, June 28, 29 and 30, 2010 from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.
Those who wish to become state-certified Ombudsmen must attend all training sessions.

Ombudsmen are needed as advocates for the frail elderly living in Adult Care Homes and Nursing Homes in Allegany County. Through friendly visits with residents, Ombudsman Volunteers make sure that resident concerns are heard, investigated, and resolved.

Ombudsmen assist residents with concerns regarding care, finances, food service, administrative policies, medical services, suspected neglect, mistreatment or abuse, and personal problems.

The NY Certified Training Program will help you understand the role of the Ombudsman and the needs of the elderly in long-term care facilities. Highlights of the training include programs on complaint handling by Deana Prest, NYS Ombudsman; Understanding Alzheimer's Disease and Dementias by Julie Schoenecker of the Alzheimer's Association; the role of the regulator, Don Guglielmi, NYS Department of Health; the survey process by Richard Scafetta, NYS Department of Health; criminal prosecution of patient abuse and neglect by Tom Scheif, Office of the NYS Attorney General; as well as local presenters and tours of local facilities.

There is no charge for the training and lunch and snacks will be provided. If this program sounds interesting to you, please call Lynn Oyer at the Office for the Aging at 866-268-9390. You may attend the training without being obligated to serve as a volunteer. After the training, Lynn will meet with you to determine your interest and whether or not this is a good volunteer job fit.
