

AU hosts 'Dump 'n' Run' event for community, charities

5/14/08

Some 15 faculty/staff members and representatives from campus organizations including GreenAlfred, Residence Life, and the Environmental Studies Department are holding a "Dump n' Run" sale on Friday, May 23, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., and Saturday, May 24, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. in Davis Gym on the Alfred University Campus. "Dump n' Run" is a national movement which takes place on many campuses across the country at this time of year. Before AU students left for summer break, they were asked to place items they didn't want or couldn't fit into their cars in designated areas on campus. These items will be for sale to the public in Davis Gym. Any items that do not sell will be donated to charitable organizations for distribution to families in need. Non-perishable food items will be given to the local food pantries. If you or your organization would like to help with the "Dump 'n' Run" event, please contact either Nancy Freelove, chair of the Support Staff Council at 607.871.2562 or e-mail Audrea Sirianni, secretary of University Relations, at sirianaa@alfred.edu.
