Street Address Required by Federal Law for Retirement Plan Participants

As part of the USA PATRIOT Act, our Retirement Service Provider TIAA CREF is now required to have a residential street address on file for every participant. Their records indicate that there are participants in the Alfred University Retirement Plan for whom they have only a P.O. Box or business address on file. We are letting you know that they will be sending a letter in the coming weeks to these participants asking them to provide their residential street address.

Participants will have the chance to provide their residential street address online by logging into their account, calling TIAA CREF directly or by mailing or faxing in the Request for Residential Street Address form. This form and a postage-paid envelope will be enclosed with the letter.

This request is for verification purposes only and will not change the mailing address on file, unless the participant chooses to do so at this time.

For upcoming graduates who would like to become more familiar with the Alma Mater - Words are listed below, along with a link to hear the song.

This link can also be accessed by anyone wanting to learn the song.

HAIL TO THEE ALFRED - ALMA MATER OF ALFRED UNIVERSITY

Nestled away 'mid the Empire State hills,
'Neath the watch-care of sentinel pines,
Where the murmuring song of the brook hums along,
And a favoring sun ever shines;
In a valley so fair where the forest trees share
Dominion o'er hillside and glen,
Stands the pioneer college of Western New York
Alfred, we hail thee again.

CHORUS

Hail to thee Alfred, thou guide of our youth,
Sweet benign mother, all hail!
Sing out thy anthems of duty and truth;
May thy clear ringing music ne'er fail.

Meals-on-Wheels Benefit

The Allegany Senior Foundation is hosting a party to benefit Allegany County Meals-on-Wheels. The event, Swingin' 2 the Oldies, will be held on Saturday, May 19 from 4 to 9 p.m. at the Activities Center of the Alfred State Wellsville Campus.

There will be a theme basket auction to start. There's a cash beer and wine bar, and the Barbecue Bandits are cooking smoked turkey and pulled pork for dinner. Then the Swingin' starts.

The party starts at 4 p.m., with dinner at 5:30. Drawings will be held during the evening, with things wrapping up at 9 p.m.

Tickets for the event are $15 each, or 4 for $40.

The Activities Center will be open Friday night from 5 to 8 p.m. and Saturday from noon to 2 p.m. for those wishing to participate in the basket auction only.

Meals-on-Wheels is a program operated by the Allegany County Office for the Aging. The meals are delivered five days a week at noon-time to those elders who are finding it difficult to cook or shop for food.

In 2011, the Office for the Aging delivered almost 90,000 meals to 646 homebound elders. Due to state and federal funding cuts, the program may not be able to serve all who need it, without extra help.

Anyone wanting more information or tickets for Swingin' 2the Oldies can call the Office for the Aging at 585-268-9390.

Lecture: Art in the Community & Beyond: The Influence of Linn Phelan

Speaker: Dr Andrew Phelan
Tuesday, May 8 at 7 p.m.
Nancy Howe Auditorium
David A. Howe Public Library
155 N. Main St., Wellsville
585-593-3410

An arts initiative focusing on taking the arts to communities having minimal access to cultural resources, the brainchild of several educators, eventually developed into the Art Mobile. Among many of his accomplishments, Linn Phelan was instrumental in this program. A potter and educator, he was active at Alfred University and Dartmouth College and established Linnwood Pottery in Almond. He was the founder of the original Allegany Arts Association.

Join Andrew Phelan, his son, as he examines his father's and his own life story in the Arts and pottery making. Andrew is particularly interested in hearing community members' reminiscences of his father.

Sponsored by the Allegany Arts Association (AAA). A reception celebrating Allegany Arts Association's 30th Anniversary, sponsored by the Allegany Arts Association, will precede the program at 6:30 p.m. in the Monday Club Room.

This AAA and library-sponsored lecture is free and open to the general public.

Artist as Entrepreneur: Boot Camp

The New York Foundation for the Arts (NYFA)'s "The Artist as Entrepreneur: Boot Camp" is an intense 5-session course that trains 50-60 artists in the fundamental principles of sustainability - and ultimately profitability - in the arts. This includes classes on finance, accounting, law, marketing, and fundraising. The structure is a blend of formal lectures, breakout groups, take-home assignments, and one-on-one consultations.

This July, NYFA and NYU Steinhardt Performing Arts Administration Program will collaborate in presenting "The Artist as Entrepreneur: Boot Camp," for members of the performing arts community including, dance, theater, film, music, music composition and more. The program will take place on the NYU campus and be led by a team of NYFA staff and expert presenters from the performing arts community.

Now in its third year, "The Artist as Entrepreneur: Boot Camp" has earned rave reviews from participants and generated significant interest from the wider community. Participating artists have produced two arts festivals and developed networks and opportunities that continue well beyond the close of the program.

The Artist As Entrepreneur Boot Camp runs on July 13-15, and 21-22, and will take place on the NYU campus. Five sessions: July 13 (evening introductory session), and July 14, 15, 21, and 22 (daylong sessions, approximately 10 a.m. until 5 p.m.).

For questions, please contact us at bootcamp@nyfa.org with "NYFA/NYU Boot Camp" in the subject line.
