

Saxon swimming and diving team loses to Ithaca

12/05/00

ALFRED The Alfred University men's swimming and diving team lost at home to Ithaca College, 130-103, Tuesday night at Lebohner Pool. Senior Brian Striker (Caledonia/York) won two events for the Saxons (1-2): the 200 freestyle in a time of 1:44.82; and the 200 backstroke in a time of 1:58.03. Alfred's other winner was junior Dave Berman (Auburn/Auburn), who won the 3-meter diving event with a score of 227.00 points. Berman took second in the 1-meter diving event with a score of 228.65. Other top finishers for AU were junior Pat Kerwin (Canandaigua/Canandaigua), who took second place in the 50 freestyle with a time of 22.40 and second in the 100 freestyle with a time of 49.42. The Saxons are in action next on Jan. 10 at 4 p.m. at Lycoming (PA) College.