

◆Artists Gone Wild◆ to benefit World Wildlife Foundation

4/03/14

Artists Gone Wild is a show with donated works by up-and-coming artists from Alfred University to be sold at a live auction Friday, April 11, 7-8 p.m. in the Judson Leadership Center (JLC) on campus.

There will be a silent auction as well with refreshments. All proceeds will go to the World Wildlife Foundation.

The event is the capstone project of student Shahane A. Sahakian, a junior art and design major participating in the Gary Horowitz Leadership Development Program in the JLC, auction sponsor.

If you cannot attend the auction, bids may be placed online, 48 hours before the event, via Facebook, where of the pieces to be auctioned will be available 48 hours before the event. Please visit:

https://www.facebook.com/events/621486314594666/?ref\_dashboard\_filter=calendar

Bids should be placed in the “Comment” section.