4/14/07

ELMIRA, NY- The Alfred University women's lacrosse team fell to host Elmira College 16-2, on Saturday afternoon. The Soaring Eagles (4-6, 1-3 E8) dominated the first period and were a perfect 11 of 11 on draw controls (17-3 overall) and outshot the Lady Saxons 22-3. Alfred (1-5, 0-4 E8) fell behind early and trailed 10-0 at the half. AU got its first tally of the contest when senior midfielder Molly Ambrogi-Yanson (Pittsford, NY/Pittsford-Mendon) found the back of the net on a free position shot. Freshman Bailey Hebert (Heuvelton, NY/Heuvelton) also notched a free position goal for AU. Elmira scored the first 10 goals of the contest with Kristen Leonardi pacing the Eagles with three goals while Lauren Mokes dished out three assists and scored a goal. Freshman goalie Shauna Carroll (Babylon, NY/West Babylon) made five saves for AU. Malorie Stockwell played the first half in net for Elmira making one save before being replaced by Jalene McCulloch who stopped five shots. The Lady Saxons will be in action next on Sunday, April 15, at 1 p.m. at Ithaca.
